

PhilCAMPthropy

is the act of raising money or doing good work that helps other kids get to CAMP ERIN Toronto!!

Philanthropy refers to charitable acts or other good works that help others or society as a whole.

Philanthropists make the world a better place.

There are so many little and BIG things you could do to help us RAISE money to send other kids, just like you, to CAMP

TELL a FRIEND, your class, a person in your school or family about CAMP & your experience

HOST a GAMES night for family and friends. Charge a fee to attend or tell them about camp & ask for DONATIONS

WALK your neighbors's DOG, cat or LIZARD and share your earning with CAMP ERIN

BAKE SALE

GARAGE SALE

Indoor/Outdoor MOVIE NIGHT

Ask for DONATIONS instead of presents

Share your talents
Acting, Music
Art Show,
Paint Night

Be CREATIVE!
What are your ideas?

Camp Erin Toronto is a free, family bereavement day camp for youth who are grieving the death of a significant person in their lives.

For more information of PhilCAMPthropy, hosting an event, donating, sponsorship or Camp Erin email camperintoronto@gamil.com

